

CODY M. WESTON

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Clackamas County Judge, July 2021-present
 - Preside over a wide variety of matters, including complex civil litigation and judicial settlement conferences
- Complex Commercial Civil Litigator, Perkins Coie LLP, Portland, OR, 2004-2021 (partner 2010-2021)
 - Litigated broad range of complex civil disputes, including but not limited to business torts, contracts, intellectual property, personal injury, real estate, shareholder and partnership disputes, construction law, employment law, etc.
 - Participated in several hundred mediations of civil disputes
 - Chair, national firm-wide Business Litigation Subgroup, April 2020-July 2021
 - Chair, Perkins Coie Portland Commercial Litigation Group, 2016-2020
 - Ranked by Chambers USA: “America’s Leading Lawyers for Commercial Litigation,” 2017-2020
 - Listed in The Best Lawyers in America, Commercial Litigation, 2013-2020
 - Listed in Oregon Law and Politics, “Oregon Super Lawyers,” 2010-2020, and as “Rising Star,” 2008-2009
 - Oregon Board of Bar Examiners, 2007-2010; Vice Chair 2009-2010
- Marine Corps Lawyer and Infantry Officer, various locations, 1991-2004
 - Operational Law Instructor and Advisor, Center for Law and Military Operations, Army JAG School, Charlottesville, VA 2001-2004
 - Staff Judge Advocate, Marine Expeditionary Unit, Camp Lejeune, NC 2000-2001
 - Prosecutor, Camp Lejeune, NC, 1998-2000. Prosecuted hundreds of criminal courts-martial.
 - Infantry platoon commander, Camp Pendleton, CA, 1992-1994. Participated in operations in Somalia.

EDUCATION

- University of Oregon School of Law, JD 1998
 - Associate Editor, Oregon Law Review
 - Order of the Coif; graduated #4 in class, 3.90 GPA
- Harvard College, BA, Government, Honors 1991
 - N.R.O.T.C. Scholarship; Distinguished N.R.O.T.C. Marine Corps Graduate
 - National Merit Scholar